Cava
Spain

AGUSTÍ TORELLÓ MATA

"Although Agusti Torello was founded in 1950, this estate sold its Cava to other producers for twenty or thirty years before taking the plunge and bottling themselves. Their philosophy and tagline is: "Cava with soul," something sceptics might smirk at, at least until they taste them. All fruit is sourced from Penedes from organically cultivated vines and they concentrate upon Reserva and Gran Reserva only."

THE WINE ADVOCATE

Brut Nature Gran Reserva Barcelona	2009	€15.50
Kripta Brut Nature Gran Reserva Barcelona	2007	€49.00

PRIVAT

Organic grapes produce a dry base wine which is then fermented according to the traditional method, as used in Champagne. Aged a minimum of 15 months on its yeast lees to impart a delicate bready flavour and released without any dosage making it the refreshing ultra-brut style. Unusually, no sulphites or other products are added in the whole process.

Privat Rosé Brut Nature Reserva Alella	2012	€14.00
Laietà Reserva Brut Nature Eco Alella	NV	€24.00

GRAMONA

Gramona is one of the very finest Cava producers of all, and this wine - aged for five whole years before release - is part of the reason why!
"Really splendid bottle of Cava. Complex and intense nose showing smoke, pastry aromas, quince and yeasty character. Substantial palate, perfectly integrated bubbles and great delicacy. Extremely savoury and energetic."
18.5/20, JANCISROBINSON.COM

Gramona III Lustros	2006	€30.00

JOSE LUIS FERRER

One of Mallorca's greatest producers, Jose Luis Roses Lambourne, the grandson of the founder, turns his expert hand to this delicious sparkling wine (Cava is the term for any traditional method sparkling wine from Spain, not just those from Cataluña). Made largely from the characterful local grape Moll, this is a uniquely Mallorquin celebration of a wine!

Brut Veritas Binissalem	NV	€18.00

JUVE Y CAMPS

Juvé y Camps has been a family run company for three generations and has garnered an international reputation. Joan Juvé Mir, a bold and enterprising vine grower with ideas way ahead of his time, laid the foundations of what would become the family firm in the heart of the best Cava area, Sant Sadurní d'Anoia outside Barcelona, more than 200 years ago.

PARXET

Made in the traditional method, like Champagne, bottle-fermented and aged for 15 months on its lees, Parxet is made from a blend of Macabeo, Parellada and Pansa Blanca grapes. The Brut Nature is bone dry, having no enriching dosage before bottling, and is therefore a wonderful fizz for fish and shellfish dishes.

Campo de Borja

BODEGAS ARAGONESAS

Bodegas Aragonesas is the most famous name in Campo de Borja, in the hills around Zaragoza. Here the vineyards of old vines struggle to produce grapes against a backdrop of high altitude and an extremely arid climate. The consequence is incredible depth of flavours. The region has much history having produced wine since Roman times. Famously, the Borgia family who moved to Italy (and produced two Popes, amongst other claims to fame) originated in Borja, hence the name. These four red wines all capture the quality and heritage of the area.

Martúe Selección Especial Toledo	2010	€16.50

CLOS MOGADOR

Founded by famous French winemaker René Barbier (whose c.v. includes winemaking at Pétrus!), Clos Mogador is a fusion of Spanish grapes such as Garnacha and French classics like Cabernet and Syrah. It really demonstrates what Spain is capable of, and now competes with such vaunted names as Pingus and Vega Sicilia in all but price.

Clos Mogador Gratallops	2012/13	€65.00

CLOS DE L'OBAC

Costers del Siurana is one of the very finest producers in Priorat. Clos de l'Obac is the result of the diversity of altitude and orientation of the eight vineyards that produce the grapes, all of which are sited around the town of Gratallops.

Clos de l'Obac Tarragona	2005	€48.00
Clos de l'Obac Tarragona	2008	€50.00

Disco Burgos	2013	€8.50
Sentido de Neo Burgos	2011	€12.00
Neo Burgos	2010	€30.00

PAGO DE LOS CAPELLANES

In the 13th and 14th centuries, a chapel existed in the nearby village of Pedrosa de Duero. The inhabitants of the village donated small parcels of land to the chaplains as a way to show their appreciation. The chaplains of Pedrosa came to have a sizeable landholding, but with the Mendizábal confiscation of 1855, the properties of the church and the clergy were given over to the Pedrosa city council. Despite this, the inhabitants of Pedrosa continued calling the area Pago de los Capellanes in honour of the chaplains.

Mallorca is now rightly regarded as one of the greatest places in Spain to make wine.

Bordeaux Red

Relieve your tensions with our unrivalled range of Bordeaux across a spectrum of communes, fine vintages and price and quality levels, available directly from our stocks in Palma, and from our cellars on the Côte d'Azur.

Médoc

The Médoc, also known as Bordeaux's 'left bank', produces the greatest of Bordeaux's Cabernet Sauvignon wines, and its famous communes, from Margaux to St Estèphe are bywords for quality and stature.

Château Fourcas Dupré Listrac 1207810 2010 €24.00

Château Potensac Médoc 1208106/8 2006/8 €39.00

The Potensac vineyards have similar soils to St Estèphe and this really comes through in this elegant, earthy wine. Made from Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. It has a lovely elegant nose of red and black fruit, followed by attractive, pure plum and raspberry flavours with cedar and mineral hints and a good tannic structure.

CHATEAU CAMENSAC

A Grand Cru Bordeaux property whose wines offer exceptional value due to their Médoc appellation (like Cantemerle, La Lagune et al). Mainly Cabernet Sauvignon and fruit-packed.

Château Camensac 5ème Cru Classé 1008900 2000 €68.00

Château Camensac 5ème Cru Classé 1008905 2005 €70.00

Delicious now and from one of the very best vintages ever in Bordeaux, this Camensac bursts with vibrant black cherry and mocha flavours. A streak of spicy vanilla oak completes the picture.

Château Camensac 5ème Cru Classé 1008910 2010 €61.00

"This has a brambly, chewy feel, with dark currant and steeped fig notes allied to a smoldering tobacco edge on the finish. Pleasantly rustic, boosted by the oomph of the vintage."
88 POINTS, WINE SPECTATOR

CHATEAU CANTEMERLE

This prestigious property in the Médoc is most noted for featuring a high percentage of Merlot, making for an approachable, forward wine style, drinkable in relative youth. A Grand Cru (classed growth) in the prestigious 1855 classification, the wines are something of a steal in value terms.

Château Cantemerle Haut-Médoc 1011703 2003 €83.00

Château Cantemerle Haut-Médoc 1011710 2010 €75.00

"Stunningly deep ruby/purple, with a beautiful nose of spring flowers intermixed with perfumed raspberry and blueberry notes. Broad, rich and intense on the palate, the wine has plenty of tannins, but they are sweet and well-integrated. Everything is delicately entwined into this beautiful, medium to full-bodied, dense purple wine."
94+ POINTS, THE WINE ADVOCATE

CHATEAU CHASSE-SPLEEN

The unusual name of this property, undoubtedly the finest estate in Moulis, means (loosely) to chase away the blues, and how appropriate for such a great wine at a reasonable price. Had this property been considered for inclusion in the 1855 classification it surely would have been awarded high classed growth status, and would fetch vastly higher prices these days.

Château Chasse-Spleen Moulis	1014405	2005	€77.00
Château Chasse-Spleen Moulis	1014410	2010	€67.00

"A beautiful effort from Chasse-Spleen, this dense purple wine exhibits plenty of black currant and black cherry fruit with some licorice, roasted herbs and forest floor. Medium to full-bodied and supple."
90 POINTS, THE WINE ADVOCATE

CHATEAU POUJEAUX

Poujeaux's wines offer great value for money and provide a taste of Cabernet Sauvignon based Bordeaux to rival many a more famous name.

Château Poujeaux Moulis	1004403	2003	€69.00
Château Poujeaux Moulis	1004405	2005	€77.00

"An intensely ripe, fruity wine, which is already well integrated. The intense dark fruits are supported by some new wood and grainy tannins. This is powerful, and, with its acidity, should age well."
93 POINTS, WINE ENTHUSIAST

FOOD SUGGESTION
Usually lamb would be the suggestion for a Bordeaux from a classic vintage, but this is forceful enough to cope with roasted or even seared beef.

St Julien

Offering a great balance between the elegance of Pauillac and the fleshy fruit depth of Margaux, St Julien produces some of the most delicious of the Médoc's wines. Actually the smallest of the four major Médoc regions despite being home to the highest percentage of classed growth Châteaux.

CHATEAU BEYCHEVELLE

Beychevelle's name comes from 'Baisse-Voile' in reference to the fact that the ships passing by the château lowered their sails in deference and allegiance to Admiral Jean-Louis Nogaret de la Valette, the property's first owner under Henri III. To this day, Beychevelle has the prettiest and most dramatic impact on the riverbank of the Gironde estuary.

Château Beychevelle 4ème Cru Classé	1001003	2003	€199.00

"The most beautifully situated chateau, with its great view of the Gironde estuary, Beychevelle is another of those Médoc estates that has found top form after a fallow period in the 1980s and early '90s. The wine's generosity, sweetness and fruit is balanced with the carefully crafted structure of wood that underpins it all."
93 POINTS, WINE ENTHUSIAST

Château Beychevelle 4ème Cru Classé	1001009	2009	€175.00

"The finest Beychevelle since the 2003 and probably since the 1982, Beychevelle's 2009 is opaque purple in color, with a beautiful, floral nose intermixed with black currant fruit, licorice, cedar wood and Christmas fruitcake. Full-bodied yet still elegant and pure, this wine has velvety tannins, a broad, savory mouthfeel, and a very long finish."
93 POINTS, THE WINE ADVOCATE

CHATEAU DUCRU BEAUCAILLOU

The name of this estate comes from the former owner, Mr. Ducru, and a description of the land it comprises: 'beau caillou' literally means 'beautiful pebble'. Pebbles and small stones permit good drainage of the soil, and their presence in the soils of the Médoc contributes hugely to the quality of the wines.

CHATEAU GLORIA

Château Gloria was not around in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux Châteaux, and was therefore not graded. Whilst no one can really say what level it might have been awarded, most commentators agree that Gloria offers tremendous value for money, and a great example of the St Julien style.

Château Gloria Cru Bourgeois 1003800 2000 €99.00

"This beautiful Bordeaux fruit bomb offers abundant notes of black currants, herbs, cherries, cedar, and spice box. Fleshy and medium to full-bodied with no hard edges, the 2000 Gloria is a total thrill to consume."

CHATEAU TALBOT

The wines of Château Talbot - named after John Talbot, Earl of Shrewsbury - are consistent and well balanced, showing good ripe, luscious Cabernet Sauvignon fruit and cedar wood, typical of St Julien.

Château Talbot 4ème Cru Classé 1000100 2000 €192.00

"Beautiful aromas of raspberries, Indian spices, crushed flowers and berries. Full-bodied, with a solid core of ripe fruit and silky tannins. Long and delicious. A very fine and pretty wine. Best Talbot in years."

Pauillac

Pauillac is home to no fewer than three of the five First Growths, and eighteen Grand Cru Classé properties altogether, and for good reason. The wines offer a sublime essence of Bordeaux's world-beating red wine style.

CHATEAU BATAILLEY

Château Batailley is a classically styled Pauillac that exudes the near stereotypical aromas of cassis, cigar box and pencil shavings augmented by a coffee-bean texture and silky tannins. Really excellent value and delicious even in youth.

Château Batailley 5ème Cru Classé	1013100	2000	€130.00

CHATEAU DUHART-MILON ROTHSCHILD

With 69 hectares planted with Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc, Duhart is managed by Charles Chevallier, general manager at Château Lafite Rothschild. It has the distinguished and reserved character so typical of Pauillac.

Château Duhart-Milon Rothschild 4ème Cru Classé	1004810	2010	€157.00

"Dense purple, with classic notes of cedar and lead pencil shavings as well as gobs of black currants and licorice, the wine has a full-bodied mouthfeel with fabulous precision and density. It also possesses a long, silky finish with moderately high tannins, but they are ripe and well-integrated."
96 POINTS, THE WINE ADVOCATE

CHATEAU HAUT-BATAILLEY

Owned by the Borie family of Grand-Puy-Lacoste and Ducru Beaucaillou fame, Haut-Batailley has always been a reliable, characteristic Pauillac that performs well in great and lesser vintages alike.

Château Haut-Batailley 5ème Cru Classé	1002196	1996	€99.00
Château Haut-Batailley 5ème Cru Classé	1002103	2003	€105.00

90 POINTS, WINE SPECTATOR

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD

Lafite consistently produces one of the wines of the vintage year in, year out. In a great vintage it is a reasonable assumption that Lafite will have produced the greatest Cabernet Sauvignon in the whole Médoc and fashioned a wonderful, long-lived currant and cedar scented ethereal beauty.

Château Lafite Rothschild 1*er Cru Classé* 1000589 1989 €988.00 DELIVERY 10-14 DAYS

"Quite deep crimson, though colourless rim. Very attractive, quite aromatic, harmonious nose with some spice and digestive biscuit sweetness. Round and full, yet delicate. Real undertow of richness. Chewy finish."

"This is remarkably young, with a deep well of succulent black currant, fig and blackberry fruit notes that feel 10 years younger than most peers, carried by wave upon wave of velvety tannins. Despite the density and heft, there's glorious length and finesse too, with alluring black tea, smoldering charcoal and warm paving stone notes just starting to emerge. Awesome wine."

CHATEAU LATOUR

Latour is considered one of the most powerful, dense Pauillacs to be found and it needs to age. A very high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon (sometimes as much as 94%) lends the wine huge power and structure. Tasting notes include leather and spice, enhanced by intense blackcurrant fruit.

The palate is pure power that is stunningly balanced giving a generous level of fruit concentration perfectly offset by a high level of very finely grained tannins and seamless freshness. Possessing a finish that just goes on and on, this is as good as it gets."

"The wine is very ripe, but not over-ripe, offers great freshness, and lots of creme de cassis and camphor as well as hints of blackberries and chocolate. Dense, thick and unctuously textured, this staggering Latour is undeniably the most sumptuous, opulent wine made here since the 1982 or 1961."
100 POINTS, THE WINE ADVOCATE

CHATEAU LYNCH BAGES

Always something of a relative bargain, Lynch Bages was awarded a derisory Fifth Growth status in 1855, perhaps the greatest travesty in the whole classification, as the property regularly performs at 'super second' level. For many people, Lynch Bages epitomises the style of Pauillac with its cedary pencil shaving aromas and densely packed cassis fruit.

CHATEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD

Château Mouton Rothschild is the only Château to achieve reclassification in the 1855 Médoc Classification (a list drawn up by the dignitaries of the region to classify all the Médoc Châteaux according to the prices they were fetching on the market at the time). This put them in 1973 into the realm of the top five Châteaux (Premiers Grands Crus Classés). The bottles from this vineyard are famous not only for the powerful yet deceptively smooth wine inside, but also for the colourful labels brought out each year (designed by a different artist for each vintage).

"A blend of 72% Cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Cabernet Franc, and 19% Merlot, it reveals an opaque purple color, and reluctant aromas of cassis, truffles, coffee, licorice, and spice. In the mouth, the wine is "great stuff," with superb density, a full-bodied personality, rich mid-palate, and a layered, profound finish that lasts for 40+ seconds."

Proprietor Alfred Tesseron produces all his wines by wholly organic methods, a rarity in Bordeaux. A superstar wine from a property that borders Mouton Rothschild, it is outperforming its historic reputation by perhaps the greatest degree in the whole of Bordeaux.

Château Pontet-Canet 5ème Cru Classé 1001900 2000 €215.00

"Extremely pretty aromas of mineral, blackberry and raspberry. Full-bodied, with well-integrated tannins and a medium finish. Well-crafted red. The best Pontet-Canet ever."

MARGAUX

Margaux

Margaux is one of the Médoc's prettiest villages, and with potential for confusion, is noted above all for its eponymous First Growth Château. The wines of the whole commune are famous for supple tannins and deeply expansive, plush fruit flavours and are often a little more approachable in youth than other of the Médoc's finest wines.

Château Pontac Lynch Cru Bourgeois 1014712 2012 €38.00

This wine estate has an enviable position between Château Margaux and Château d'Issan. Half Merlot, with Cabernets Sauvignon and Franc, and a dash of Petit Verdot. Deep, dark red in colour. A fruit-driven nose packed with warm cherry aromas. Full in the mouth with firm tannins and excellent balance.

CHATEAU GISCOURS

The high percentage of Merlot in the blend accounts for the wine's depth and richness of flavour as well as its approachability in youth. A classic Margaux name, now fully revitalised and back to fulfilling its colossal potential.

Château Giscours 3ème Cru Classé	1003110	2010	€120.00

CHATEAU KIRWAN

Mark Kirwan of Galway in Ireland gave his name to this Château whose illustrious history is surely passing through its golden age currently under the deft winemaking expertise of consultant Michel Rolland. CHATEAU MARGAUX

Possibly the most regal of Bordeaux's château buildings, Margaux is a byword for family-owned quality, panache and style. Under the hand of winemaking maestro Paul Pontallier, the property has been moving towards organic viticulture. They make their own barrels at the chai, and the wine is understandably regarded as one of the best in the world.

Boasting one of the most impressive château buildings in the Médoc (which alas has never been lived in), Palmer is widely regarded as the greatest Third Growth property and is more than occasionally believed to have produced the wine of the vintage, not just in Margaux, but in the whole of the region.

CHATEAU PRIEURE-LICHINE

Made famous by the wine writer Alexis Lichine and still carrying his name, this property went from a neglected 11ha plot in the 1950s (albeit with much history and a good classification) to the stellar 47ha vineyard it is today. The wines are soft, supple and rich with varietal character and a great sense of Margaux.

St Estèphe

The most northerly of the communes in the Haut-Médoc and regarded as the smokiest in presentation. Truly excellent St Estèphe tends to have a faint, but definite aroma of Lapsang-Souchong tea to accompany its dry-grained black fruit.

Château Beau-Site Cru Bourgeois 1013205 2005 €32.00

"Shows wonderful spice, sweet tobacco, currant and sultana. Full-bodied, with velvety tannins and a dried fruit finish."

CHATEAU CALON-SEGUR

Once part of the mighty Ségur estate, which variously included Lafite and Mouton-Rothschild amongst others, the Marquis de Ségur was very fond of Calon, and no account of Calon-Ségur is complete without reporting his assertion that "I make my wine at Lafite and Latour but my heart is in Calon". Doubtless this is the reason why Calon-Ségur features a heart motif on its label, and throughout the exquisite château buildings.

CHATEAU COS D'ESTOURNEL

The archetypal St Estèphe and almost as famous for its fantastic folly-like château building as it is for a wine which defines its commune. Cos is simply one of the must-have names and they are noted for producing amazing wines in every vintage, often being awarded the accolade of wine of the vintage in lesser years.

CHATEAU ORMES DE PEZ

Sadly the ormes (elms) of the village of Pez were lost in the great storm of winter 2000, although have since been replanted. The property is owned by the Cazes family (Lynch-Bages) and their winemaking artistry certainly shows through here.

Château Ormes de Pez Cru Bourgeois Exceptionnel	1011210	2010	€61.00

Graves & Pessac-Léognan

Extending southwards from the city of Bordeaux itself, with some of the finer Pessac estates, such as Haut Brion, actually now engulfed by the city, the region of Graves - which means gravel - produces some of the finest and most elegant Cabernet Sauvignon wines of all.

CHATEAU DE FIEUZAL

De Fieuzal's red is a Cabernet Sauvignon dominated Pessac-Léognan of huge poise and finesse. This small property, owned by an Irish philanthropist, produces wines (both red and white) that punch considerably above their weight.

Château de Fieuzal Grand Cru Classé 1204809 2009 €80.00

"A terrific, classic Graves with notes of subtle smoke, black raspberries, black currants, graphite and unsmoked cigar tobacco, this full-bodied, deep, concentrated de Fieuzal is far more generous and deep than most vintages."

92+ POINTS, THE WINE ADVOCATE

CHATEAU HAUT BRION

Haut Brion was the first wine estate to start bottling its own wine in the early 17th century, rather than selling in bulk to négociants, and it consequently gained in fame and value thanks in particular to claret lovers in London. It is therefore considered the forefather of the great Bordeaux growths. It naturally was placed at the top of the famous 1855 Médoc Classification.

"While I have always admired Haut-Brion, now I am addicted to its perfume and complexity."

The result is a deep ruby/purple-colored wine with a tight but promising nose of burning wood embers intermixed with vanilla, spice box, earth, mineral, sweet cherry, black currant, plum-like fruit, medium to full body, a high level of ripe but sweet tannin, and a finish that goes on for a good 40-45 seconds."

St Emilion

One of the largest appellations for quality wines in France (Châteauneuf-du-Pape is the largest at 5000ha), St Emilion is, along with Pomerol, where Merlot comes into its own. Unlike most Pomerol, however, in St Emilion the soft, plummy Merlot is usually blended with some Cabernet Sauvignon or Cabernet Franc to produce wines that are greater than the sum of their parts.

CHATEAU ANGELUS

Château Angélus was officially recognized as a Premier Grand Cru Classé in 1996. It has consistently delivered superb wines ever since. Powerful and massive, it has concentrated blackcurrant, redcurrant and leather on the palate given structure by good tannins which soften with time. As with almost all St Emilion wines, this is made principally from Merlot.

Château Angélus 1er Grand Cru Classé 1100698 1998 €449.00 DELIVERY 10-14 DAYS

"The 1998 Angelus shows a saturated opaque, plum/purple color and a beautiful fragrance of blueberry and black raspberries with licorice, asphalt, truffle and a touch of white chocolate. Beautiful texture, full-bodied opulence, striking purity and overall equilibrium make for a stunning wine."

CHATEAU CHEVAL BLANC

What really sets Cheval Blanc apart is its unusual mixture of grape varieties planted as a result of its position on the gravel outcrop that dominates St Emilion. The main grape is Cabernet Franc, augmented by the more expected Merlot and only a minuscule amount of Cabernet Sauvignon. The origin of the White Horse name is lost in time.

CHATEAU LA COUSPAUDE

La Couspaude is one of the most famous 'garagiste' properties in St Emilion, although in this case the wine is made at a château and not in a garage! The production is tiny, and the awards are coming thick and fast - this is truly a wine estate in the ascendancy offering wonderful examples of concentrated, Merlot dominated wines.

Château la Couspaude Grand Cru Classé 1205400 2000 €120.00

CHATEAU FIGEAC

Situated, like Cheval Blanc, on the gravel soils of the west of the region, Figeac uses around 70% Cabernet in its wine, making it the most Médoc-like of the right bank properties. A typographically exquisite label and classic winemaking also mark out this fine estate.

Pomerol

Characterised by a wonderful, velvety texture and deep fruit flavours, the wines from Pomerol constitute the purest expression of the Merlot grape at its apogee. Headed by Pétrus itself, the clay soils of the hill of Pomerol are one of France's most expressive terroirs.

CHATEAU NENIN

Owned by the proprietors of St Julien's superstar Léoville Las Cases, and featuring a rather high percentage of Cabernet Franc for a Pomerol estate, this is the most left bank-like of the wines from the commune.

Château Nénin	1108603	2003	€110.00
Château Nénin	1108604	2004	€115.00
Famous, perhaps apocryphally, as being the favourite red wine of the Queen, Nénin has produced its typical depth of structure, velvety tannins and cherry liqueur-like fruit this vintage.

PETRUS

Probably the greatest and certainly the most famous red wine in all of Bordeaux, and perhaps the world. Because of their extraordinarily rigorous selection - sometimes they only use 50% of the crop - Pétrus consistently make the best possible wine every vintage. This impacts on the quantity produced, between 1000 and 2500 cases only, but maintains the wine's legendary reputation.

Château La Fontaine 1506609/10 2009/10 €30.00

Pale gold in colour, with a heady fragrance of white flowers, honey and a touch of lanolin. The sweetness on the palate is balanced by a judicious amount of acidity in this medium bodied Sauternes.

CHATEAU RIEUSSEC

Rieussec has long been considered the second greatest property in Sauternes after Yquem and with masterful performances year in, year out, it is not hard to taste why. It is presented in the full, rich, fruity, caramel, marmalade and smoke style, and yet manages to retain a degree of lemon zest freshness.

It can last, if stored correctly, for up to a century. Made, as are all sweet Bordeaux wines, from Sémillon and aged for four years in oak barrels.

Wine Courses

Rod Smith MW, one of only a few hundred Masters of Wine in the world, leads the VSF courses. By attending one of these, you will be introduced to the basics of tasting, grape varieties, regions, serving and food and wine matching. All in a convivial and – most importantly – FUN way!

Official Qualifications

VSF is a longstanding Approved Programme Provider for the range of courses run by the WSET (Wine and Spirit Education Trust). This means that we will be offering the first three levels, each of which leads to an officially recognised professional qualification, and which qualifies in conjunction with the modular PYA Interior courses:

Level 1

The course covers all aspects of the fundamentals from how wine is made to storage and serving, with an emphasis on the practical. After completing a short exam and set of tasting notes at the end of the day long course, you will receive – if successful – a globally recognised qualification. And it's still huge fun!

Level 2

Spirits

We are proud to feature an extraordinary array of the world's finest spirits as well as everyday bar essentials. Our range evolves constantly and is too broad to list in its entirety here (please call us for our simple spreadsheet order form), but you can be sure that whether it is a vintage-dated Armagnac to match someone's birth year, the most limited release Single Malt Scotch Whisky, über-premium Tequila or the latest trendy Vodka, we will do our very best to get it to you. Last but not least, we have one of the best ranges of beers and soft drinks, including hard-to-find sodas and mixers, light beers and artesian waters.

DID YOU KNOW?

When first made, all distilled spirits are completely clear and have no colour. Brown spirits such as Cognac, Scotch, Rum and Tequila gain their colour from a period of time spent aging in wood, with sometimes the addition of caramel colouring for standardisation.

Whisky

At any given time over the last fifty years somewhere in the world has been a hotbed of interest in and growth of sales of fine whisk(e)y. But currently it seems as though everywhere is! From Russia to Japan, to across Europe and the States, demand for rare older bottlings of Single Malt whiskies from Scotland, along with their Irish, American, Canadian and Japanese counterparts is at an all-time high. We are pleased to be able to offer you a comprehensive choice from the simplest blend to super-premium elixirs such as Johnnie Walker Blue Label.

DID YOU KNOW?

To 'e', or not to 'e', that is the question. This issue is a matter of geography. If the drink originates from Ireland or the United States, it will usually be written whiskey. However, if the spirit comes from Scotland, or other countries around the world, it is spelled whisky.

Vodka and Gin

We have a large range of the best-selling Vodkas from across the world, including everything from Absolut to Zubrowka! From the ever-popular Grey Goose from France, or Belvedere from Poland, to the nautically inspired Beluga Transatlantic from Russia, or Tito's Handmade Vodka from the States, we're sure to have something to suit your needs.

There seems to be no halt to the rise in Gin's renaissance, and we have the classics from Tanqueray and Bombay to the new kids such as Chase and Hendrick's.

DID YOU KNOW?

In Russia, vodka is typically served neat and very cold (from the freezer) and accompanied by salty or pickled snacks. Traditionally a short toast is offered up with every round – try "Na Zdorovie!" or "To Your Health!"

Brandy

Naturally we have a superb range of the finest Cognacs from north of Bordeaux. These range from the everyday VS eaux-de-vie to the super-premium bottlings, often in stunning decanters, from Rémy Martin, Hennessy, and Delamain to name but a few.

Armagnac, from a little further south west in France is a characterful, rich brandy that acquires smoothness as it ages and for this reason is available in vintage dated bottles. We can source almost any year from noted distillery J. Goudoulin.

The finest wines of Italy often give birth to the most exquisite Grappas, and we offer a range of both dolce (gold) and secco (clear).

DID YOU KNOW?

During barrel maturation, Cognac loses around 2% of its volume through evaporation each year, known as the 'angel's share'. This leads to the development of a black-coloured fungus called Baudoinia compniacensis which feeds off the ethanol in the air, and causes the walls and roofs of many buildings in Cognac to become blackened.

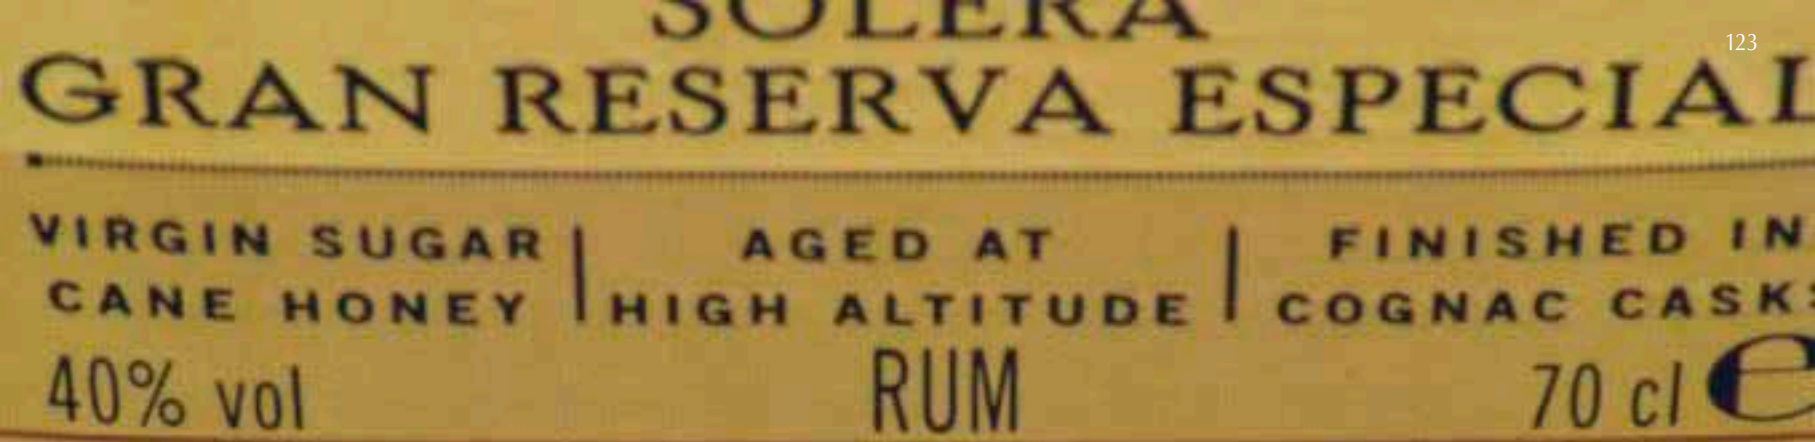

Tequila

Now becoming deservedly popular and fashionable, the finest Tequilas are a world away from the inexpensive branded spirits many people associate with the word. The sublime and ever-popular range from Patron features in our selection, along with the finest examples from Don Julio, Herradura and Cuervo.

DID YOU KNOW?

The tradition of drinking Tequila with lime and salt first came about as a result of the 1918 Spanish flu epidemic. With a lack of effective medicines at the time, doctors in Mexico prescribed this as the best remedy with which to fight it.

Rum

Rum has the most diverse range of styles of any spirits category, from the well-known range of light rums from Cuba's Bacardi and Havana Club, the fruity, medium-weight rums of Mount Gay in Barbados, to the complex Demerara style rums of Guyanese brand El Dorado, to name but a few. The category is experiencing something of a renaissance as bartenders the world over are recognizing its versatility, not only as an essential ingredient for a plethora of cocktails, summery punches and long, fruit-based drinks, but also, in its aged form, as a premium sipping spirit. Rum is a category in the ascendency, and we will keep up to date with all the latest developments.

DID YOU KNOW?

Rum has many colourful nicknames, one of which is 'Nelson's blood'. According to legend, after his death at the battle of Trafalgar, the body of Admiral Nelson was preserved in a barrel of rum for the journey back to London. However, upon arrival the cask was found to be empty of rum as the sailors had made a hole in the bottom and drunk it dry. This story is also behind the origins of the phrase 'tapping the Admiral' meaning to sneak a furtive drink.
