One of the most northern wine producing regions in the world, Champagne is located 90 miles north-east of Paris with 34,000 hectares of vines. Surrounding the Champagne hubs of Epernay and Reims, the region produces around a million bottles of Champagne a day.

A technique said to have been invented by Dom Pérignon in 1688, Champagne is made using the traditional method, when a second fermentation is induced in the bottle, producing CO2 and resulting in a sparkling wine. Champagne style wines are now replicated all over the world.

These premium wines are usually made from a blend of grapes: Chardonnay to add fruit and elegance; the red grapes, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier, for body and backbone.

BILLECART-SALMON

Still family run, the small house of Billecart-Salmon offers a range of black-grape dominated Champagnes with bright, complex fruit flavours resulting from a long, slow, cool fermentation process. Particularly well known for its elegant Rosé, Billecart-Salmon is a Champagne house for wine lovers: many who discover it drink few other Champagnes thereafter.

DOM PERIGNON

Dom Pérignon, owned by Moët & Chandon, is an exclusively vintage prestige cuvée Champagne. It is made from roughly equal quantities (varying slightly according to the vintage) of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, grown only in the best vineyard sites in Champagne. During production, the wine sees no oak and is protected from oxidation as much as possible making it one of Champagne’s most reductive, minerally styles with an overarching elegance, harmony and completeness. It is one of the most classic, famous, and eye-catching of all wines and consistently tastes as good as its reputation suggests it will.

Dom Pérignon 2006 €137.00
Dom Pérignon Rosé 2004/5 €315.00

LAURENT-PERRIER

Chardonnay forms the core of most of Laurent-Perrier’s cuvées giving the wines a fresh, elegant style. The exception to this is their Cuvée Rosé, for which the house is best known. Made from 100% Pinot Noir, it is unusual in that it is made by the tricky ‘saignée’ method. This is the technique by which the pink colour is obtained through maceration of the skins rather than the addition of red wine (the way most Rosé Champagnes are made) and gives Laurent-Perrier Rosé its remarkable flavour.

MOET & CHANDON

Moët & Chandon Brut Impérial NV €36.00
Sparkling wine is arguably the most technical style of wine in the world. Not only do these wines have to undergo a first fermentation in order to make alcohol, but also a second fermentation to produce the carbon dioxide giving the wine its fizz. Either made in the same way as Champagne, where the second fermentation takes place in the bottle, or by using the tank method where it takes place in a sealed tank.

Produced all around the world, sparkling wine comes in a huge range of styles, from bone dry to perfumed and floral.

CAVA

AGUSTI TORELLO MATA

"Although Agusti Torello was founded in 1950, this estate sold its Cava to other producers for twenty or thirty years before taking the plunge and bottling themselves. Their philosophy and tagline is "Cava with soul," something sceptics might smirk at, at least until they taste them. All fruit is sourced from Penedes from organically cultivated vines and they concentrate upon Reserva and Gran Reserva only."

Organic grapes produce a dry base wine which is then fermented according to the traditional method, as used in Champagne. Aged a minimum of 35 months on its yeast lees to impart a delicate bready, floral and released without any dosage making it the refreshing ultra-brut style. Unusually, no sulphites or other products are added in the whole process.

LOUIS ROEDERER

Most famous for their prestige cuvé Cristal which was first created in 1876 for the Tsar of Russia, Alexander II, the house of Louis Roederer is known for the sheer quality and style of their wines across the range. Roederer is the largest owner of organically-farmed (and increasingly, biodynamically-farmed) vineyards in Champagne. The wines are distinguished by their superb balance, finesse and elegance and their fine, creamy mousse.

GRAMONA

Gramona is one of the very finest Cava producers of all, and this wine - aged for five whole years before release - is part of the reason why!

Gramona III Lustros 2006 €30.00

JOSE LUIS FERRER

One of Mallorca’s greatest producers, Jose Luis Roses Lambourne, the grandson of the founder, turns his expert hand to this delicious sparkling wine. Cava is the term for any traditional method sparkling wine from Spain, not just those from Cataluña. Made largely from the characterful local grape Moll, this is a uniquely Mallorquin celebration of a wine!

ROSE

Rosé is produced in a variety of styles around the world, although perhaps the best known are those from Provence. Not only is this France’s oldest wine region, having been making wine for over 2,600 years, but it is also the only one to focus on rosé.

It even has a research institute dedicated to the style. Dry, crisp and refreshing, these wines are a blend of regional varieties such as Grenache, Carignan and Syrah.

France produces 7-8 billion bottles of wine every year, second only to Italy in terms of volume. A key part of French culture, with 27 billion hectolitres being drunk in France annually, wine is produced throughout the country in every style.

France's long-standing wine heritage gave birth to the appellation system, designed to preserve regional wine styles, which has been emulated all over Europe.

France is also the source of many international grape varieties such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Pinot Noir, Syrah, Sauvignon Blanc and Chardonnay.

FRANCE WHITE LOIRE

Located between the centre and north of France, the Loire valley stretches 600 miles east to west and accounts for 8% of the country’s vineyards including the famous appellations of Sancerre, Pouilly-Fumé, Muscadet and Vouvray. Sancerre and Pouilly-Fumé are situated at the far eastern end of the Loire valley and arguably produce the world’s greatest expressions of Sauvignon Blanc. Sancerre also produces high quality reds and rosés from Pinot Noir.

The Loire is considered to be France’s most diverse wine region given the different climates and soil types such a large region offers, and as such, produces wines in every style.

BURGUNDY WHITE

Burgundy, or Bourgogne, is the source of the most majestic Grand Cru and Premier Cru wines in the world. The polar opposite of Bordeaux with its grand Châteaux, this is a complex region of small holders with over 3,000 vineyard owners. 15 million cases are produced annually from 100 different appellations spanning 26,000 hectares.

Reds made from Pinot Noir and whites from Chardonnay, these wines are not only long lived, but also some of the most exceptional on the market.

The region is split into 5 sub regions:
- Chablis, Côte de Nuits, Côte de Beaune, Côte Chalonnaise and Mâconnais.

The most significant of these for the production of white wines are Chablis, the Côte de Beaune and the Mâconnais.

CHABLIS

A very well-known name in the world of wine, Chablis is a northern region of 4,900ha celebrated for producing Chardonnays which are austere in character and display steely, fresh minerality. There are 40 vineyards which are classified as Premier Cru, and 7 Grand Cru vineyards which overlook the town of Chablis and the River Serein.

CÔTE DE NUTS

The Côte de Nuits is a 20km stretch forming the northern part of the Côte d’Or, Burgundy’s ‘golden slope’, and it is here that most of the world’s finest examples of Pinot Noir are produced.

Named after the region’s largest village, Nuits-Saint-Georges, 22 out of Burgundy’s 23 red Grands Crus are located here, expressing a variety of styles. They tend to be weightier and deeper coloured than the Pinots produced on the Côte de Beaune.

Gevrey-Chambertin, Vougeot and Nuits-Saint-Georges are known for their robust style of wine, whilst Chambolle-Musigny and Vosne-Romanée display finesse and elegance.

CÔTE DE BEAUNE

Despite the Côte de Beaune being well-known for its white wines, there is actually more red wine produced in the region.

The Pinot Noirs from this southern half of the Côte d’Or show softness and finesse with the best examples coming from Beaune, Pommard and Volnay as well as the exceptionally powerful Grand Cru of Corton.

BORDEAUX

France’s most important wine region and the centre of the fine wine world, Bordeaux has 120,000 hectares under vine and produces over 900 million bottles a year.

With 57 different appellations and 10,000 producers, Bordeaux is home to some of the world’s finest Châteaux, producing long lasting wines of exceptional quality.

88% of the production of Bordeaux is red wine, or Claret as it is known in the UK, made from Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot. Bordeaux is also the source of some of the world’s longest lived sweet wines from Sauternes and dry whites made from Sauvignon Blanc and Sémillon.

The wines of Bordeaux were classified in 1855 with only 5 receiving first growth status - Château Lafite, Château Mouton Rothschild, Château Latour, Château Margaux and Château Haut Brion. Those Châteaux that made it into any of the five tiers of this classification will have Grand Cru Classé on the label.
FRANCE BORDEAUX

LEFT BANK

MEDOC

Home to many of the biggest names in Bordeaux, the Médoc is the most famous red wine region in the world and includes the renowned appellations of St Estèphe, Pauillac, St Julien and Margaux. Situated on the Left Bank of the Gironde estuary, the best vineyard sites are located on gravelly outcrops close to the river. The Left Bank is well suited to the production of Cabernet Sauvignon and the wines produced here will generally have this as the dominant grape in the blend.

PAUILLAC

Considering that Pauillac is a small region of only 23 km², three of the five First Growth Châteaux are located here – Château Latour, Château Lafite and Château Mouton Rothschild – with Grands Crus Classés representing 84% of the rest of the production. Fine, deep and gravelly soils mean that the vine roots reach a greater depth here than anywhere else in the Médoc. The resulting wines are intense and display great complexity.

ST JULIEN

St Julien is the smallest of the well-known Médoc communes at only 100ha with a uniform style thanks to the gravelly soils. Despite having no First Growth properties, St Julien is considered to offer the most consistent wines across the board, with impressive offerings year after year.

ST EMILION

Located on the right bank of the Dordogne, St Emilion is one of the most important Bordeaux appellations in terms of both quality and quantity. Merlot is the predominate grape variety and is perfectly suited to the clay and chalk-rich soils here. Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon are also grown. Given the high proportion of Merlot, these wines are much more approachable in youth than the more astringent examples produced on the left bank.

MARGAUX

The largest commune in the Médoc, and home to First Growth Château Margaux, Margaux is famous for producing the most elegant and alluring wines of the Left Bank. With the lightest and most gravelly soils in the Médoc, the finest examples of Margaux are intensely perfumed whilst also subtle and refined.

PESSAC-LEOGNAN/GRAVES

Pessac-Léognan is a new district created in 1986 within Graves due to pressure from the vignerons who wanted to disassociate themselves from growers further south where the soils were much sandier. Pessac-Léognan is home to Château Haut Brion, the only First Growth property outside of the Médoc.

RIGHT BANK

POMEROL

Pomerol is the smallest of the prestigious Bordeaux appellations with around only 130 producers and 440 hectares of vineyards. Demand and prices for these wines are high given that many of these are boutique growers making circa 1,000 cases a year. Pomerol is dominated by Merlot, producing rich and smooth wines. Château Pétrus is considered to be one of the best producers in Pomerol.

ST EMILION

Located on the right bank of the Dordogne, St Emilion is one of the most important Bordeaux appellations in terms of both quality and quantity. Merlot is the predominate grape variety and is perfectly suited to the clay and chalk-rich soils here. Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon are also grown. Given the high proportion of Merlot, these wines are much more approachable in youth than the more astringent examples produced on the left bank.

CHATEAU CAMENSAC

The Camensac vineyards are on a gravelly elevation in the commune of Saint-Laurent-Médoc, and the excellent drainage afforded by the deep, stony soil is augmented by a system of field drains. The various plots, all entitled to the Haut-Médoc appellation, are cared for on an individual basis. Attractive ripe cherry and blackcurrant fruit intermixed with hints of damp earth, spice and new wood from this charming Médoc property.

CHATEAU CANTERNERLE

This prestigious property in the Médoc is most noted for featuring a high percentage of Merlot, making for an approachable, forward wine style which is drinkable in relative youth. A Grand Cru (classed growth) in the prestigious 1855 classification, the wines are something of a steal in terms of value.

Château Cantenerele

CHATEAU CHASSE-SPLEEN

The unusual name of this property, undoubtedly the finest estate in Moulis, means (nearly) to chase away the blues, and how appropriate for such a great wine at a reasonable price. Had this property been considered for inclusion in the 1855 classification it surely would have been awarded high classed growth status, and would fetch vastly higher prices these days.

Château Chasse-Spleen

CHATEAU POUJEAUX

The wines from Château Poujeaux in Moulis are often amongst the finest value on offer from the Médoc. Cabernet Sauvignon (50%) with the balance a mixture of Merlot, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot, this is a classically-styled Bordeaux. The vibrant flavours of cassis, damson and spice are intermingled with cedary oak and vanilla.

Château Poujeaux

Located on the right bank of the Garonne, St Estèphe is the most important Bordeaux appellation in terms of both quality and quantity. Merlot is the predominant grape variety and is perfectly suited to the clay and chalk-rich soils here. Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon are also grown. Given the high proportion of Merlot, these wines are much more approachable in youth than the more astringent examples produced on the left bank.

CHATEAU CALON-SEGUROnce part of the mighty Ségur estate, which at various times included Lafite and Mouton Rothschild, the Marquis de Ségur was very fond of Calon, and no account of Calon-Ségur is complete without reporting his assertion that "I make my wine at Lafite and Latour but my heart is in Calon." Doubtless this is the reason why Calon-Ségur features a heart motif on its label and, throughout the exquisite château buildings.

CHATEAU COS D’ESTOURNELThe architectural (I hate this word) is as famous as its fantastic folly-like château building as it is for a wine which defines its commune. Cos is simply one of the must-have names and they are noted for producing amazing wines in every vintage, often being awarded the accolade of wine of the vintage in lesser years.

CHATEAU ORMES DE PEZSadly the ormes (elms) of the village of Pez were lost in the great storm of winter 2000, although since then have been replanted. The property is owned by the Caizie family (also owners of Lynch-Bages) and their winemaking artistry certainly shows through here.

PAUILLACCHATEAU BATAILLEYChâteau Batailley is a traditionally-styled Pauillac that evokes the near stereotypical aromas of cassis, cigar box and pencil shavings, augmented by a coffee-bean texture and silky tannins. Really excellent value and deliciously even in youth.

CHATEAU DUHART-MILON ROTHSCHILDWith 76% of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc, Duhaut is managed by Eric Kohler, technical director at Château Lafite Rothschild. It has the distinguished and reserved character so typical of Pauillac.

"The Rothschild family has invested heavily in this estate over the last 20 years in order to upgrade the quality, and their investments have certainly paid off handsomely."

Robert Parker

CHATEAU HAUT-BATAILLEYOwned by the Borie family of Grand-Puy-Lacoste and Ducru Beaucaillou fame, Haut-Batailley has always been a reliable, characteristic Pauillac that performs well in great and lesser vintages alike.

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILDLafite consistently produces one of the wines of the vintage year in, year out. In a great vintage it is a reasonable assumption that Lafite will have produced the greatest Cabernet Sauvignon in the whole Médoc and fashioned a wonderful, long-lived, currant and cedar scented, ethereal beauty.

CHATEAU LAFAYETTE ROTHSCHILD

CHATEAU LAFAYETTE ROTHSCHILD

Lafite is considered one of the most powerful, dense Pauillacs to be found and it needs to age. A very high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon (sometimes as much as 95%) lends the wine huge power and structure. Tasting notes include leather and spice, enhanced by intense blackcurrant fruit.

CHATEAU LYNCH BAGESAlways something of a relative bargain, Lynch Bages was awarded a desirable Fifth Growth status in 1855, perhaps the greatest travesty in the whole classification, as the property regularly performs at a "super second" level. For many people, Lynch Bages epitomises the style of Pauillac with its cedary, black fruit, cedar, smoke and pencil box. There is a sense of bravura here, of aristocracy. The finish is sweet, super-rich, yet extremely balanced and long.

"This is one of my favorite wines ever. Racing out of the blocks with audacious scents of black currant fruit soars majestically in the mouth with layers of silky fruit and structure. Tasting notes include leather and spice, enhanced by intense blackcurrant fruit."

The Wine Advocate

CHATEAU LYNCH BAGES

"This opaque purple-colored 1989 is close to perfection. The spectacular nose of lead pencil, emony, mineral, and black currant fruit soars majestically from the glass. The wine is elegant yet profoundly rich, revealing the essence of Lafite's character. The finish is sweet, super-rich, yet incredibly balanced and long."

The Wine Advocate

"Blessed with a sensational nose that comes racing out of the blocks with audacious scents of black fruit, cedar, smoke and pencil box. There is a sense of bravura here, of aristocracy. The palate is medium-bodied with sumptuous dark fruit; perhaps beginning to soften in texture; one or two years off its plateau."

Possibly the most regal of Bordeaux’s château buildings, Margaux is a byword for family-owned quality, panache and style. The softest and most approachable of the First Growth Châteaux, Margaux is a rounded, delicious wine that nevertheless reveals layer upon layer of spice, vanilla, smoke, fruit, coffee and cedar complexity.

ST JULIEN

ST JULIEN BEYCHEVELLE

According to legend, the name Beychevelle came from the Gascon ‘bîcha vèlle’, meaning ‘lower the sails’. This was a reference to the fact that ships passing by the château lowered their sails in deference to Admiral Jean Louis Hogarret de la Valette, the property’s first owner under Henri III. To this day, Beychevelle has the prettiest and most dramatic impact on the riverbank of the Gironda estuary.

In 1994, the property was bought by the Keller family, owners of the famous Egon M. Shtenlein, who put a great deal of effort and money into it.

The northern Rhône contains some of the oldest vineyards in France producing elegant wines made from Syrah which are both powerful and have the capacity to age. Hermitage and Côte-Rôtie are the stars of the north, needing at least a decade to show at their best. St Joseph and Cornas produce more accessible examples whilst Crozes-Hermitage offers great value for money.

The valley floor opens out in the southern Rhône, with vines planted low to the ground in goblet formation to protect them from the strong mistral winds. The soils here are made up of round stones from the ancient river bed, which retain the warmth of the day, helping to fully ripen the grapes of the heat-loving Grenache. The best wine villages of the Côtes du Rhône have been given their own appellation such as Gigondas and the well-known Châteauneuf-du-Pape.

Following the Rhône River from north to south, this southern French wine region is 250 km in length with 200 communes producing wine in a wide range of styles.

ITALY

Home to more than 2000 grape varieties and some of the oldest wine regions in the world, Italy produces more wine than any other country with the 2016 harvest reaching 48.8 million hectolitres. Italy has over 1 million vineyards under cultivation, producing wines from almost every region, renowned worldwide for their broad variety.

Each region has its own style with the most significant in terms of both quantity and quality being Piedmont, Tuscany and Veneto.

Italy’s best-known grapes are Sangiovese, Nebbiolo, Pinot Grigio, Barbera and Montepulciano alongside international varietals, in particular Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot.

GERMANY & AUSTRIA

Germany has 102,000 hectares under vine and is the tenth largest wine producer in the world. Home to the world’s greatest Rieslings, white grapes make up 65% of all plantings. The cool climate produces wines with incredible precision and focused fruit flavours balanced by finely tuned acidity.

Austrian wine recently came into its own following a wine scandal in 1986 which led to a complete restructuring of the industry, making Austria one of the top countries in the world for production standards. The wines display great elegance and acidity with delicate aromatics.

ITALY WHITE

PIEDMONT

Located in the north west of Italy, Piedmont has a continental climate influenced by its proximity to both the Alps and the Ligurian Apennines. Since Roman times, Piedmont has been considered the fine wine capital of Italy and has the country’s highest proportion of DOC and DOCG wines even though it only accounts for 7% of its production.

Gavi DOCG is Piedmont’s best-known dry white wine made from the Cortese grape grown around the town of Gavi itself. Whites are also made from the indigenous Neveo near the town of Amelis.

Nebbiolo is the king of red wine grapes in Piedmont and is planted on all of the best sites. Nebbiolo, the variety behind Barbaresco and Barolo, produces wines with pronounced aromas of tar, roses and truffles which age fantastically needing at least ten years before they come into their own.

Barbera and Dolcetto are grown around the towns of Asti and Alba producing easier drinking styles that are more accessible from a younger age.

BARBARESCO

A third of the size of neighbouring Barolo, and 50 years younger, Barbaresco is renowned for producing some of Italy’s finest wines. Thanks largely to the efforts of Angelo Gaja, the region has been recognised for its real potential and it was granted DOCG status in 1980.

BAROLO

Barolo DOC was founded in 1966 and upgraded to DOCG status in 1980, which seems appropriate given that this is not only Italy’s most famous wine region, but is also widely regarded to be its best. Reds are made from 100% Nebbiolo which capitalises on the long, warm summers and the unique terroir, with each village sitting upon its own hill surrounded by vineyards.

TUSCANY

Italy’s oldest wine region, Tuscany is also its 5th largest producing the third highest amount of DOC/DOCG quality wines despite only producing around 6% of the country’s volume of wine. This is largely due to the region’s poor soils which encourage producers to grow small yields of high quality grapes.

Tuscany has a unique terrain with more than two thirds of it being hilly which benefits the predominant grape variety, Sangiovese, as it needs direct sunlight to ripen fully. Two of Italy’s most famous wines are found in Tuscany – Chianti and Brunello di Montalcino.

SUPER TUSCAN

The term ‘Super Tuscan’ first emerged in the 1970s to describe a new wave of wine being made outside of DOC/DOCG regulations to a very high quality, and commanding high prices to match. Many of these wines achieved a cult following and as a result, the Italian classification system was changed to give these DOC or DOCG status. Some producers still prefer to use IGP Toscana.

Responsible for revolutionising the Italian wine industry, Angelo Gaja is a name that commands a great deal of respect in the wine world. Now running this winemaking dynasty alongside his daughter Gaia, the Gaja family continue to produce arguably Italy’s most iconic wines. The range encompasses wines that define Barbaresco, as well as properties and vineyards in Barolo, Maremma, and Montalcino.

“Getting to the top in any field is hard. Staying at the top is even harder. For all of the praise Angelo Gaja and his family have received over the years, they have earned and deserve every bit of it.”

TIGNANELLO

This is the winery that coined the phrase ‘Super Tuscan’ producing Cabernet blends in the 1920s due to the Marchesi’s love for Bordeaux wines. Originally only able to call these wines IGT, it is a testament to the quality of Sassicaia that the Bolgheri DOC was created specifically for it. Guidalberto is the second wine of this incredible winery.

“Unquestionably one of the most compelling and dramatic Cabernet Sauvignons I have ever tasted, it continues to go from strength to strength.”

SOLENGO

Solengo is the Tuscan world for ‘lone wild boar’ reflecting perhaps the ability of this Super Tuscan to stand apart from the crowd. A relatively new project for Argiano, Solengo was started by the late renowned oeneologist Giacomo Tachis and now continues to be the work of the very talented Argiano team. This is a wine that demonstrates the perfect match between Tuscan soil and the French grape varieties Cabernet Sauvignon, Petit Verdot, Merlot and Syrah.

SOLAIÀ

Solaià (derived from the Italian word meaning the sun) was first produced in 1978 from a parcel of Cabernet within the Tignanello vineyard that was deemed to be of such high quality that the Marchesi decided to vinify it separately. Since then the quantity has increased from the original 3,600 bottles and the Solaià vineyard now consists of 32ha. Solaià is only produced in the best vintages and truly reflects its terroir. An elegant and captivating wine from the Antinori stable.

SPAIN

Spain is the third largest producer of wines in the world with over a million acres under vine, more than any other country. Given the diversity of the country’s landscape and climates, and the fact that Spain is home to 60 regional DOs, it’s hardly surprising that it produces wines in a variety of styles.

From the fresh whites made from Albariño in Rías Baixas to top end reds from Rioja and Ribera del Duero, there is a huge amount of exciting wine available, offering fantastic value for money.

RIOJA

Spain’s most famous wine region, Rioja is situated in the north of the country just south of the Cantabrian Mountains. The wines are normally a blend of grapes, the majority being Tempranillo with some Garnacha and Graciano.

Traditional style Rioja is distinguished by long periods of barrel ageing, whereas the modern style favours the fruit and freshness of Tempranillo. Rioja is only ever released onto the market when it is ready to drink and as such, offers incredible value for money.

Bodegas Aragonesas is the most famous name in Campo de Borja, in the hills around Zaragoza. Here the vineyards of old vines struggle to produce grapes against a backdrop of high altitude and an extremely and climate. The consequence is incredible depth of flavour. The region has much history having produced wine since Roman times. Famously, the Borgia family who moved to Italy (and produced two Popes, amongst other claims to fame) originated in Borja, hence the name. These three red wines all capture the quality and heritage of the area.

PAGO DE LOS CAPPELLANES

In the 13th and 14th centuries, a chapel existed in the nearby village of Pedrosa de Duero. The inhabitants of the village donated small parcels of land to the chaplains as a way to show their appreciation. The chaplains of Pedrosa came to have a seculous landholding, but with the Mendizábal confiscation of 1856, the properties of the church and the clergy were given over to the Pedrosa city council. Despite this, the inhabitants of Pedrosa continued calling the area Pago de los Capellan in honour of the chaplains.

DOMINIO DE PINGUS

Danish oenologist Peter Sisseck has crafted masterful wines from tiny vineyards of incredibly old Tempranillo (here called Tinto Fino). In a good year, no more than 500 cases of Pingus get produced, in a poor year, none does. Possibly Spain’s greatest wine.

‘Perfumed nose of dried roses, orange rind and sweet cherries. The palate has open, quite perfumed and subtle, with some fine tannins, good palate is also approachable and gentle, more weight than the nose might make you guess, with some fine tannins, good balance and clean flavors.’

The Wine Advocate 2007

The 2010 Reserva has plenty of lactic notes, aromas of ripe berries and hints of spice and smoke. The palate is quite accessible with fine-grained tannins and good acidity and overall balance.”

VEGA SICILIA

If there is only one name in classic Spanish premium winemaking, it must surely be Vega Sical. From the heart of Ribera del Duero and at the heart of many wine lovers’ wish-lists. Expensive, but worth it.

‘Bodegas Luis Cañas owns 90 hectares of vine. These wines are imbued with wonderful purity and sophistication, managing to tread that fine line between modernism and classicism and embracing the virtues from the two. Moreover, I found that these wines evoked a sense of place, something that not all Rioja wines do. These all comes highly recommended.’

A significant wine player, the USA is the fourth largest producer of wine after France, Italy and Spain, with wine produced in all 50 states.

California is by far the most significant state with it accounting for 90% of the country’s wine output, from tiny producers to some of the world’s largest brands. Napa and Sonoma in California are responsible for producing some of the world’s best Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Pinot Noir, Zinfandel and Chardonnay. Washington in New York State produces some fantastic Bordeaux blends, whilst Oregon is known for outstanding Pinot Noir.

ARGENTINA & CHILE

Whilst South America has been making wine since the 1500s, it wasn’t until plantings of Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon and Carménère were brought over from France in 1800 that Argentina and Chile started making wine of notable quality. Now producing wine across all price points the wine industry is booming, with Argentina famous for Malbec from Mendoza, and Chile for fantastic cool climate Cabernet Sauvignon, Carménère and Sauvignon Blanc.

The Wine Advocate

Bodegas Hidalgo - La Gitana

From the charming fishing village of Sanlúcar de Barrameda on the Andalusian coast, where the sea breezes encourage the growth of an added layer of the famous ‘flor’ yeast that imparts such a distinctive and delicate flavour to the Manzanilla as. The Amontillado and Oloroso are rich but dry wines with intense flavours. The Pedro is a sticky raisin wine - just perfect for ice cream.

Manzanilla La Gitana NV €9.00
Pedro Ximénez Hidalgo NV €17.00

GONZALEZ BYASS

From the largest quality producer in Jerez, and the most magnificent bodega, designed by Gustave Eiffel, comes Tio Pepe (Uncle Joe). The classic Fino, Dry and elegant.

Tio Pepe Fino NV €9.00

PORT

TAYLOR’S

“This house must certainly be the Latour of Portugal. Their ports are remarkably backward yet still impressive when young. Of all the vintage ports, those of Taylor need the longest time to mature and even when fully mature seem to have an inner strength and firmness that keep them going for decades.”

WINE COURSES
SERVICES FOR YOU AND YOUR GUESTS

Whatever the wine needs of your guests and colleagues, we will be happy to help:

• Cellar planning, evaluation and assessment for new builds, or shore-based cellars.

• Wine tasting notes, information and food recommendations.

• Wine events and entertainment for your yacht’s owners and guests: tutored tastings, wine dinners, and vineyard/winery visits.

• Wine courses and education for crew (see page xxx), including the world-recognised WSET (Wine and Spirit Education Trust) courses for which we are an Approved Programme Provider.

Whatever your question, be it about grape varieties, regions, vintages, serving temperatures, storage or glassware, we are happy to help, and we’re around when most other people have gone home.
